

DAY 1 / SUNDAY NOV 12TH

ARRIVE MÁLAGA

Check in the hotel. Visit of Malaga and the very famous Calle Larios. If there is time we will visit the Museum Picasso.

Welcome dinner.

Hotel Eurostars 3* or similar

DAY 2/ MONDAY NOV 13 TH

MALAGA - CÓRDOBA – SEVILLE – CORDOBA – MALAGA

We start in the morning with a walking tour in Cordoba. This city was the capital of the Al Andalus kingdom, when Spain was ruled by the Muslims. Cordoba is famous as the birthplace of Maimonides (commemorated here by a statue), and was also one of the places R. Abraham Ibn Ezra lived. We will visit the old Jewish quarter and synagogue, as well the museum that has recently been established, where we will have the chance to hear a Ladino music show.

After enjoy lunch boxes, we will continue our journey to Seville, a beautiful city with an old history – Judah Halevi lived here – and a tiny Jewish community. We will tour the Santa Cruz quarter, which is part of the old Jewish city, and visit the Alcazar, the royal palace. It was in Seville that the infamous Inquisition first began its operations in 1481. After our tour, we will travel back to Malaga.

Hotel Eurostars 3* or similar

DAY 3 / TUESDAY NOV 14TH

MALAGA – GRANADA – MALAGA

In the morning, we will travel to Granada.

Granada was an important Jewish city in medieval times, home to many outstanding figures, including R. Samuel ha-Nagid. The morning is devoted to visiting the magnificent Alhambra, a series of palaces and gardens built by the Muslim rulers in the fourteenth century. It was also the site where Ferdinand and Isabella signed the Expulsion decree in 1492. After lunch, and seeing some more local sites and we will visit the Museum Sephardi of Granada.

Hotel Eurostars 3 or similar*

DAY 4/ WEDNESDAY NOV 15TH

MALAGA – GIBRALTAR– MALAGA

In the morning, we will start with a beautiful tour in Gibraltar, a British enclave in Spain which has had a strong Jewish community for hundreds of years. the rock of Gibraltar, seeing the famous monkeys, and then onto the Great Siege Tunnels and St. Michael's Cave .

Free time in the shopping area.

Hotel Eurostars 3 or similar*

DAY 5/ THURSDAY NOV 16TH

MALAGA – TORREMOLINOS

After checking out the hotel we will go to visit Marbella and Puerto Banús.

We will visit the synagogue of Marbella and will have lunch in the gardens of the synagogue

Free time for shopping in Puerto Banus

Overnight in Torremolinos

Hotel Cervantes 4* or similar

DAY 6/ FRIDAY NOV 17 TH

Free time in Torremolinos, la Carihuela y la calle San Miguel.

Arvit in the Torremolinos synagogue

Dinner with the local community

Hotel Cervantes 4* or similar

DAY 7/ SATURDAY NOV 18TH

Lectures and activities in the hotel.

Hotel Cervantes 4* or similar

DAY 8/ SUNDAY NOV 19TH

Breakfast and transfer to Málaga Airport